Post-Conference Strategy and Skills Workshop

Friday, November 13, 2015 • 8:00am to 12:00pm

Collaborative Leaders Network Conference Room • Hawai'i Leadership Forum
700 Bishop Street, Suite 1701 (Topa Financial Center)

- 8:00a Coffee
- 8:30 Welcome, Introductions and Overview of the Morning
- 8:45 Part 1: Initiating Up Front Collaboration on Science Focused Teams – Howard Gadlin, Ombudsman, National Institutes for Health
- Partnerships, alliances and collaborations that involve scientific inquiries often bog down at the back end because the stage wasn't set at the front end. This session by NIH's Ombudsman will report on a specific strategy being used at NIH and other institutions and provide examples of front-end "prenuptial agreements".
- 10:00 Break
- 10:15 Joint Fact Finding: A Way Through Some Legal and Political Expert Wars – Peter Adler and Keith Mattson, Accord3.0 Network
- Joint Fact Finding (JFF) offers increasing promise as a way of grappling with the science-intensive, politically "snarky" conflict. This workshop explains the basics of JFF and how to organize, finance, and implement JFF processes.
- 11:30 Questions, Answers, Discussion
- 11:45 Announcement of Future Workshops
- 12:00p Adjourn

Offered by The ACCORD3.0 Network
